We invite you to attend the 2010 Georgia Logistics Summit. The Summit is the largest and most collaborative statewide and state-led event focused on logistics.

The 2010 Summit will focus on trends and initiatives affecting the competitiveness of Georgia's logistics industry. Speaker topics include federal and state policy and planning, innovative technologies in logistics and a current perspective from the private sector.

The 2010 Georgia Logistics Report, also themed "fueling competitiveness," will be released on this day and highlights will be presented throughout the Summit. This unique event provides tremendous networking opportunities, and new this year, the chance to participate in a collaborative Q&A session.

Last year's inaugural event was attended by more than 500 people representing all sectors of logistics, so you won't want to miss this opportunity to network, learn and join in!

Guest Speakers:

- Governor Sonny Perdue (invited)
- Paul Bingham, Managing Director - International, IHS-Global Insight
- Ken Bianco, Vice President - Commercial Operations, JCB
- Todd Long, Director of Planning, Georgia Department of Transportation
- Page Siplon, Executive Director, Georgia Center of Innovation for Logistics

More details on the agenda, speakers and Q&A panelists collaborating in the Summit will be coming soon!
